A Prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child. We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life — especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen." ~~~ Encouraging a Deeper Understanding of the Gospel ~~~

This week we hear of the man who inquires of Jesus how to obtain eternal life. He rejects Jesus' invitation to sell his goods, give to the poor, and follow Jesus. Mark tells us this devastatingly sad line, "At this saying, his countenance fell and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions" (Mark 10:22). The man's heart wasn't centered on Jesus, but on his possessions. Perhaps Jesus intuited this. Now, we don't know if Jesus intended to actually make him go through with it, like God's call to test Abraham's willingness to sacrifice Isaac. But sadly, in this case the willingness was not there to entrust everything to Jesus. And this made the man deeply sad.

For most of us, the literal dispossessing of our goods is not our call. But as Christians, a consistent renouncing of them is. This week, especially if you're noticing a persisting sadness, I invite you to hear Jesus calling you to acknowledge that none of your possessions are finally yours. They are God's and on loan to you. We get so addicted to that stuffy and sad word, "mine." At Mass, we rehearse this attitude of joyful detachment by giving bread, wine, and money to the Lord, as if to say, "Lord, all I have is yours." And what we get back is a sadness-defeating joy beyond all description: knowing that He is ours, and we are His.

What possessions are pre-occupying you at the moment? Write them down. Intentionally offer them to the Lord at the next Mass you attend. — Father John Muir ©LPi

All Saints and All Souls Day Masses

All Saints Day is Friday, November 1, and All Souls Day is Saturday, November 2. Both parishes are offering Masses for these feasts. We encourage everyone to attend these services.

IRA Qualified Charitable Distribution Workshop

When you make a charitable donation to a qualified charity like a church, if you are able to itemize, you receive a tax deduction for that donation on your tax return. With a qualified charitable deduction, (QCD), you will receive a tax benefit regardless of whether you itemize or take the standard deduction. Instead of getting a tax deduction for the donation, the QCD is simply excluded from income. This can be quite a savings for you.

If you would like to learn more about this, we will be offering workshops at both parishes on how to save tax funds with your IRA's by making a qualified charitable distribution (QCD).

Saturday, October 26 at St. Dominic

Sunday, October 27 at Immaculate Conception

Sunday, November 3 at St. Dominic

Everyone is invited to attend at either location.

Catholic Services Appeal 2024 - 2025 United In the Eucharist: Empowered for Mission

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! to everyone who has supported this year's CSA. St. Dominic parishioners have paid about 73% of their $18,585 CSA goal for this year. Parishioners at Immaculate Conception have paid about 55% of their goal $15,559 for this year.

If you have not yet made a donation, please consider helping support your parish and our diocese with a contribution as soon as possible.

We cannot always make the same size gift, but we can make the same sacrifice.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
"Who can be saved?" the apostles wonder. Who can be good enough? Smart enough? Holy enough? Jesus reminds them that no one can be — not without asking for help. We all need help to be holy. Never tire of asking for the help you need. ©LPi

FORMED - The Catholic Faith on Demand

This week we celebrate the feast of Saint Teresa of Jesus on October 15. Log into FORMED and type 'St. Teresa of Jesus' in the search area to find videos about this first Chilean Saint officially known as St. Teresa of the Andes. Registering for FORMED is easier than ever: Go to formed.org/signup; select I am a member of a parish; enter (parish zip code of 54837) then select St. Dominic from the dropdown menu provided; register with your name and email address; check that email account inbox for a link to begin using FORMED.

CATHOLIC QUESTIONS & ANSWERS?

Question: Why don't Catholics add the "For yours is the Kingdom ..." prayer at the end of the Our Father like Protestants do? Where did it come from?

Answer: The conclusion of the Lord's Prayer that you refer to is called a doxology, which is a prayer of glory and praise. This particular doxology we do use in the Mass. After the Our Father, the priest prays the prayer that begins, "Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil..." and the people respond with the doxology. The doxology is not found in the Bible, but it is very ancient. It was first found in The Didache, also called "The Teaching of the Twelve Apostles," which dates probably from about the year AD 90. It was a letter of instruction to early converts to Christianity. Protestantism dates only to the sixteenth century, so the doxology is actually a Catholic prayer. Some scholars and the catechism (#2760) indicate that the doxology was connected to the celebration of the Eucharist and was not used apart from it.

Remember, both the Lord's Prayer and the Eucharist were part of the "mysteries of faith," things taught only to believers. Ironically, a remnant of a prayer used during the celebration of the Eucharist has come to be used widely by many Christian churches that do not celebrate the Eucharist! Truth is indeed stranger than fiction! ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENT

God's Will is more Important

I oftentimes say in prayer, "Grant me the wisdom to see Your will for my life and the courage to follow that will." It is a request for true discernment to see that God's will is always more important and fruitful than my own will. It is easy to fall into the trap of thinking happiness and fulfillment lie in doing what I want to do and following my own wants and desires. Our entire secular culture is filled with that message. However, that road has led too many to a place of emptiness and regret. I must pray to keep in the forefront of my mind that God created me on purpose and for a purpose. Being wise enough to see that purpose is the key to true satisfaction in this world.

Giving of our gifts and talents in only ways we want to means that we become deaf and blind to the numerous times Jesus Christ calls us to give. We also easily avoid any form of real sacrifice, which often leads us to give only from our excess. Wisdom allows us to see where we are being called, even if we are unsure what increase will result from our investment. Our trust is no longer in the gift given but instead in the One who is calling us to give. When our lives of generosity and compassion are ordered in this way, it is hard for anything to steal our joy away. Our purpose is found, our aim is true, and our desire is fulfilled. --Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
